

Do's and Don'ts For A 500-word Essay

It would be very tough to find a more popular assignment than a 500-word essay in academic writing at reasonable prices. It is often assigned to high school and college students. Almost every student has faced this task in their academic years. A 500-word essay does not follow any specific guidelines, so you can show your full potential depending upon the essay topic and subject.

If you are working on a 500-word essay assignment and wondering professional essay writer can help me write my essay free online. You are at the right place, here you can find all the important things that you need to keep in mind for writing a great 500-word essay.

Here are some do's and don'ts for writing a great 500-word essay whether it is for a high school or a college paper.

Do:

- Give yourself some quality time even if your deadline is soon. Keep in mind that starting now is always better than starting later.
- Use formal language and make more formal vocabulary choices.
- Try to use professional writing assistance connectors and phrases.
- Be non-personal throughout the essay.
- State main ideas in your own words clearly.
- Be objective, clear and concise.
- Provide references when you add something in your text that does not belong to you.
- Check grammar, punctuation, and spelling.
- Make sure you follow the formatting requirements.

Don't:

- Do not use slang words or sexist language.

- Avoid using shortened verbs such as can't, isn't, they're.
- Do not use a common vocabulary such as nice, a lot, have got, etc.
- Avoid using conversational phrases.
- Do not use bullet points unless if it is a report.
- Avoid repetitions.
- Do not include unnecessary information.
- Don't feel shy asking for help from personal essay writer.

With these important tips in mind, you can go on and write an essay like an expert essay writer else hire a professional professional writer to do it for you!